

REVEALED: WHY THE GOVERNMENT LOST CONTROL OF IMMIGRATION

23 October 2009

Andrew Neather, a former senior adviser to Tony Blair, David Blunkett and Jack Straw, has today revealed the secret political agenda which lay behind the Government's loosening of Britain's immigration controls.

Commenting, the co-Chairmen of the Cross Party Group for Balanced Migration, Frank Field MP and Nicholas Soames MP, said:

“We welcome this statement by an ex-adviser, which the whole country knows to be true. It is the first beam of truth that has officially been shone on the immigration issue in Britain.”
